

The Winchester Star

Reprint of article appearing Monday, August 10, 2009

Teens Demonstrate Fire & Rescue Skills

Photos By Ginger Perry
The Winchester Star

Brook Snapp, 15, of Stephens City, demonstrates an aerial ladder climb during Frederick County Fire and Rescue's Second Explorer Post No. 154 graduation demonstrations Sunday at the Winchester-Frederick County Fire Training Center, 1716 Woodstock Lane. Students ages 14-17 took skills learned during the past 10 months and demonstrated them for family and friends.

LEFT: Chris DeHaven, 16, of Frederick County, puts out a Class A fire.
RIGHT: Graduates put out a vehicle fire. Four Explorer Level One and seven Level Two graduates participated. Graduation ceremonies were at the Millwood Station Volunteer Fire and Rescue Station, 250 Costello Dr.

Volunteer for Frederick County Fire & Rescue Today!

To learn more, contact Christine Langley, Volunteer Coordinator, by phone (540)722-8358 or by email
or use our contact form.