SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Frederick County Parks & Recreation Department (FCPRD) has many opportunities to connect with our community and promote your business.

The Loudoun Street Mile is an anticipated event for regional runners, held annually on Memorial Day in Old Town Historic Winchester. Celebrating its 37th year, this race attracts participants eager to traverse the iconic Loudoun Street, combining the thrill of competition with the charm of the historic setting. This year's race will serve as the RRCA Regional Championship Race as well the Collegiate Running Association Championship race. Sponsoring this event presents an exceptional chance to promote your business and establish meaningful connections within our community. In 2023, over 500 people registered for this race.

Frederick County Parks & Recreation Department (FCPRD) has many opportunities to connect with our community and promote your business.

Our annual Trails 4 Miles race is a mixed-surface four-mile challenge through the paved paths and wooded trails of Sherando Park. We also offer an untimed One Mile Walk on the scenic paved paths, ensuring everyone can participate and show their support. Sponsoring this event not only boosts your brand's visibility but also showcases your commitment to making a positive impact in the community by supporting the I'm Just Me Movement, which empowers local youth.
